For Immediate Release

Establishment of an annual award at the University of Minnesota, Morris by the Stevens County Federation of Women's Clubs was approved this week by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota meeting in Minneapolis.

The regents also gave approval to the establishment of a Stevens County Bankers' Association Scholarship Fund and an annual First Federal Savings and Loan Award at UMM, both of which have been previously announced.

The Women's Club Award will be presented annually to a deserving woman enrolled at UMM.

The First Federal Savings and Loan Award was set up to provide financial assistance to one UMM student annually.

Tuition plus incidental fees for one or more UMM students who are residents of Stevens County will be provided by the Stevens County Bankers' Association Scholarship Fund. Banks contributing to the fund include The Farmers and Merchants State Bank, Donnelly; Chokio State Bank; Hancock State Bank; Morris State Bank, and The Citizens Bank, Morris.
